

Summary of Changes to the Arkansas Ethics Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure

§I – A minor change was made to the wording of this section to provide uniformity and/or increase clarity.

§IV C. (4) – The wording of this section was changed to provide uniformity and/or increase clarity.

§VI (14) – Minor changes were made to the wording of this section to provide efficiency in the investigation procedure of the Commission.

§VI (17) – Minor changes were made to the wording of this section to provide uniformity and/or increase clarity.

§VI (18) – Pursuant to Act 195 of 2003, the phrase “civil appeal, or other judicial proceedings” was added to describe the circumstances for which a Commission proceeding is tolled.

§VII(1) – Minor changes were made to the wording of this section to provide uniformity and/or increase clarity.

§VIII – The wording of this section was changed to provide uniformity and/or increase clarity. Also, pursuant to Act 195, this section includes a new subsection which provides that as a part of its sanctioning authority, the Commission may order to respondent to file or amend a statutorily required disclosure form and shall be authorized to file suit to enforce an order of the Commission requiring the filing or amendment of a statutorily required disclosure form.

§XI – The wording of this section was changed to update the list of forms and instructions prepared and/or utilized by the Commission.